FESTIVAL

JUNE 11, 2022

Proudly supported by

Going To Beautiful

Persephone Theatre would like to acknowledge we are gathered on the beautiful lands of the Treaty 6 territory, which includes the Nêhiyawak, or Cree, as original signatories and became the traditional homeland of the Métis Nation. We also want to acknowledge the contributions of the Dakota and Round Prairie Métis peoples in establishing our city of Saskatoon. Persephone Theatre extends our appreciation for the opportunity to live, work, and create on these beautiful lands. We express our gratitude to the Indigenous peoples who have been caretakers of this land since time immemorial.

NATIONAL QUEER & TRANS PLAYWRITING UNIT

Persephone Theatre is proud to be part of the brand-new National Queer & Trans Playwrighting Unit, led by Zee Zee Theatre.

"Zee Zee has identified a gap that exists in the Canadian theatre ecology. Time and again we see a lack of queer and trans plays being produced on stages across Canada" the Zee Zee website states. "What started as a four year hunt for our own programming purposes led us to country-wide, conversations with many other artists and producers who all share the view that as curators, producers and presenters of theatrical seasons it is a challenge to find queer and trans focused work."

Persephone is one of a consortium of 10 national producing companies searching for five playwrights working towards their best and most ambitious work to date for this first ever, entirely 2SLGBTQQIA+, virtual playwriting unit, resulting in a canon of new intersectional Canadian plays being developed for production.

The consortium is made up of Gwaandak Theatre (Whitehorse), Zee Zee Theatre (Vancouver), the frank theatre (Vancouver), Theatre Outre (Lethbridge), Persephone Theatre (Saskatoon), Theatre Projects Manitoba (Winnipeg), Native Earth Performing Arts (Toronto), Buddies in Bad Times Theatre (Toronto), Imago Theatre (Montreal), and Neptune Theatre (Halifax).

Directors Circle is a special activities group for donors. Get a backstage tour and be the first to see a set and hear about special effects used in a show. Have dinner with a guest artist and hear about the development of a play from their perspective. Meet the cast and sit in on the first read-through of the script.

A $1,500 donation provides you and a guest with access to behind-the-scenes Directors Circle activities for 12 months. You can choose to make your gift as a one-time donation or sign up for monthly giving.

If you would like more information about the Directors Circle please contact Tatrina Tai, Development Officer at tatrina.t@persephonetheatre.org or reach out by phone at 306-384-2126 ext. 244.
